Sexual Harassment Video Recap
New Employees

After watching the first Video on Sexual Harassment, I understand that Moe's Southwest Grill has Zero Tolerance for any such conduct that may take place.

- ❑ Yes
- ❑ No

Second Video Please circle the correct answer from the scenario in the PowerPoint.

Example 1: Not taking "No" for an Answer

Question 1: When Ralph first asked Li Yan for a date, this was sexual harassment
True False

Question 2: Li Yan cannot complain of sexual harassment because she went on a date with Ralph. True False

Question 3: Ralph's subsequent behavior with gifts and love notes is not sexual harassment because he has stopped asking Li Yan for dates as instructed. He is just being nice to Li Yan because he likes her.
True False

Example 2: The Boss with a Bad Attitude

Question 1: Because Paul did not tell Sharon that she is unattractive, he has not harassed her.
True False

Question 2: By bringing up his visit to the strip club, Paul is engaging in inappropriate workplace behavior.
True False

Question 3: Paul should be instructed to stop making these types of comments, but this is not a serious matter.
True False

Example 3: No Job for A Women

Question 1: Women in traditionally male jobs should expect teasing and should not take the joking comments too seriously.
True False

Question 2: Carla cannot complain, because the site supervisor sometimes joins in with the joking behavior, so she has nowhere to go.
True False

Question3: These behaviors, while rude, are not sexual harassment because they are not sexual in nature.
True False

Question 4: There is nothing Carla can do because she can't prove who vandalized her toolbox.
True False

Example 4: Too Close for Comfort

Question 1: Keisha should just ignore Sarah's behavior.
True False

Question 2: Sarah's brushing up against Keisha in the conference room could just be inadvertent and does not give Keisha any additional grounds to complain about Sarah. True False

Question 3: Sarah touching Keisha's breast is inappropriate but is probably not unlawful harassment because it only happened once.

True False

Example 5: A Distasteful Trade

Question 1: David's behavior could be harassment of Tatiana.

True False

Question 2: David engaged in sexual harassment.

True False

Question 3: Tatiana cannot complain of harassment because she voluntarily engaged in sexual activity with David.

True False

Question 4: Tatiana cannot complain of harassment because she got the job, so there is no discrimination against her.

True False

Question 5: It is now "too late" for Tatiana to complain. Losing a place of favor due to the breakup of the voluntary relationship does not create a claim for sexual harassment.

True False

Example 6: An issue about Appearances

Question 1: Leonard's boss is correct to tell him wearing jewelry is inappropriate for customer service positions.

True False

Question 2: Leonard is the recipient of harassment on the basis of sex and sexual orientation.

True False

Question 3: Leonard has likely been the target of discrimination on the basis of sex, sexual orientation and/or retaliation.

True False
